SECTION 2

SETTLEMENT TERMS

2.1 Certification of the Settlement Class. For purposes of settlement and the proceedings contemplated by this Agreement only, Dardarian and OfficeMax stipulate and agree that a Settlement Class shall be provisionally certified pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 in accordance with the definition of Settlement Class contained in Section 1.19, that plaintiff Nancy Dardarian shall be the Class Representative and shall represent the Settlement Class for settlement purposes, and that the law firms of Stonebarger Law, APC and Hoffman Libenson Saunders & Barba shall be appointed as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class. Dardarian shall apply to the Court for entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, as provided in Section 3.1 of this Agreement.

2.2 Decertification of the Settlement Class if Settlement Not Approved. OfficeMax does not consent to certification of the Settlement Class for any purpose other than to effectuate settlement of the Action. If the Court does not enter Final Approval of the settlement reflected in this Agreement, or if for any other reason the Effective Date does not occur, any certification of any Settlement Class will be vacated and the Parties will be returned to their positions with respect to the Action as if the Agreement had not been entered into. In the event that Final Approval is not achieved: (a) any Court orders preliminarily or finally approving the certification of any class contemplated by this Agreement shall be null, void, and vacated, and shall not be used or cited thereafter by any person or entity; and (b) the fact of the settlement reflected in this Agreement, that OfficeMax did not oppose the certification of a Settlement Class under this Agreement, or that the Court preliminarily approved the certification of a Settlement Class, shall not be used or cited thereafter by any person or entity, including in any manner whatsoever, including without limitation any contested proceeding relating to the certification of any class.

2.3 Settlement Benefits. OfficeMax shall distribute the Claimant Benefits as follows:

(a) Benefits to Settlement Class Members Who Make Claims. Each Claimant shall be provided with an OfficeMax Merchandise Voucher with a value of ten dollars ($10.00). The $10.00 Merchandise Voucher is transferable with a 90-day redemption period and standard terms, including (i) one Merchandise Voucher may be used per customer per transaction; (ii) the Merchandise Voucher cannot be combined with any other Merchandise Voucher, coupon, offer, discount, OfficeMax Customer Perks, and/or Retail Connect pricing; (iii) the Merchandise Voucher is valid on regular, sale, promotional and/or clearance priced items; (iv) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on purchases of gift cards, general-use prepaid cards, phone cards, Virgin Mobile devices, or U.S. postage stamps; (v) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on prior purchases or for credit card payments; (vi) the Merchandise Voucher is void if copied, sold, purchased, taxed and where prohibited; (vii) the original Merchandise Voucher must be surrendered at time of purchase; (viii) the Merchandise Voucher is not redeemable for cash and no cash or credit back; (ix) the Merchandise Voucher is only redeemable at a California OfficeMax retail location. Each Claimant is entitled to receive only one merchandise voucher regardless of the number of qualifying credit card purchases.

(b) Guaranteed Voucher Distribution. Within five (5) days of the beginning of the OfficeMax fiscal quarter starting at least forty-two (42) days following the Effective Date, OfficeMax will begin to distribute one hundred and twenty thousand (120,000) Merchandise Vouchers with a value of $5.00 each to customers who make purchases in OfficeMax California retail stores. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the OfficeMax fiscal quarter immediately following the Effective Date begins less than 42 days following the Effective Date, OfficeMax at its sole election may begin the Merchandise Voucher distribution within five (5) days of the beginning of that OfficeMax fiscal quarter as opposed to waiting until the subsequent OfficeMax fiscal quarter. The Merchandise Vouchers will be valid beginning no later than thirty (30) days after the start of such OfficeMax fiscal quarter and continuing until the end of the OfficeMax fiscal quarter in which they are issued. The $5.00 Merchandise Voucher will be freely transferable with standard terms, including (i) one Merchandise Voucher may be used per customer per transaction; (ii) the Merchandise Voucher cannot be combined with any other Merchandise Voucher, coupon, offer, discount, OfficeMax Customer Perks, and/or Retail Connect pricing; (iii) the Merchandise Voucher is valid on regular, sale, promotional and/or clearance priced items; (iv) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on purchases of gift cards, general-use prepaid cards, phone cards, Virgin Mobile devices, or U.S. postage stamps; (v) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on prior purchases or for credit card payments; (vi) the Merchandise Voucher is void if copied, sold, purchased, taxed and where prohibited; (vii) the original Merchandise Voucher must be surrendered at time of purchase; (viii) the Merchandise Voucher is not redeemable for cash and no cash or credit back; (ix) the Merchandise Voucher is only redeemable at a California OfficeMax retail location.

2.4 Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The amount of attorneys' fees and costs was negotiated at arm's length, and only after agreement was reached on all substantive terms of the settlement.

Plaintiffs will file any papers supporting Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs with the Court on a date set by the Court prior to the deadline for Settlement Class Members to object to the settlement. The Parties have agreed to a floor of $200,000.00 and a ceiling of $500,000.00 in attorneys' fees and costs and agree not to appeal an award within the foregoing amounts to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Plaintiffs agree not to petition the Court for more than $500,000.00 for attorneys' fees and costs. OfficeMax preserves its right to oppose any application for attorneys' fees and costs in excess of $200,000.00. OfficeMax further preserves its right to challenge any fees and costs in any amount relating to Nathan Thoms' claims against OfficeMax. Regardless, in no event shall OfficeMax be liable for any attorneys' fees or costs in excess of $500,000.00. A reduction by the Court or by an appellate court of the attorneys' fees and costs award sought by Class Counsel below the floor of $200,000.00 shall not affect the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement. OfficeMax shall pay the attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the Court within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date.

2.5 Class Representative Incentive Award. At the same time Plaintiffs file the request for attorneys' fees and costs with the Court, Dardarian shall apply to the Court for a class representative incentive award in an amount not to exceed $4,500.00. Dardarian and Class Counsel contend this award is requested in recognition of plaintiff Nancy Dardarian's efforts and activities in furtherance of litigation and resolving this Action. OfficeMax agrees not to oppose Dardarian's request for a class representative incentive award up to $4,500.00, but in no event shall OfficeMax be liable for any incentive award in excess of such amount. A reduction by the Court or by an appellate court of the incentive award shall not affect any of the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement. OfficeMax shall pay the incentive award ordered by the Court within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date.

2.6 Payment to Named Plaintiff not Serving as Class Representative. In consideration for the General Release of the named plaintiff Nathan Thoms, OfficeMax agrees to pay $1,750.00 to resolve his individual claims within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date. In doing so, OfficeMax does not admit that Nathan Thoms has any valid claim against OfficeMax and specifically reserves its right to challenge the application for attorneys' fees and costs on the basis that Nathan Thoms has no valid claims.

2.7 Settlement Implementation Costs. OfficeMax shall bear all reasonable costs of retaining the Settlement Administrator to effectuate the settlement contemplated in this Agreement and providing Notice to the Settlement Class in the manner set forth in Section 3.2.

SECTION 3
CLASS SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES

3.1 Preliminary Approval. As soon as practicable after execution of this Agreement, Dardarian shall apply for Preliminary Approval of the settlement. The application must request that the Court:

- (a) Preliminarily approve this Agreement as being fair, reasonable, and adequate;

- (c) Set deadlines to provide Notice, submit Claim Forms, object, and opt out;
- (d) Set the date and time for the Fairness Hearing, which shall be no earlier than ninety (90) days after OfficeMax serves the CAFA Notice provided for in Section 3.3;
- (e) Provisionally certify the Settlement Class under Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;
- (f) Stay all proceedings in the Action until Final Approval;
- (g) Appoint plaintiff Nancy Dardarian as Class Representative for settlement purposes only; and
- (h) Appoint the law firms of Stonebarger Law, APC and Hoffman Libenson Saunders & Barba as Class Counsel for settlement purposes only.

The Preliminary Approval Order shall be substantially similar to the form attached as Exhibit E.

3.2 Notice. Subject to Court approval, Dardarian and OfficeMax agree that after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, Notice to the Settlement Class shall be provided as follows:

- (a) In Store Notice. Starting no later than forty-two (42) days after Preliminary Approval, OfficeMax will post and/or place for thirty (30) days a tear-away written notice at customer service near the point of sale in its California retail stores, substantially similar to the In-Store Notice attached as Exhibit C, which will include instructions on how to access the Full Notice (Exhibit D) and Claim Form (Exhibit A) that will be available via the Settlement Website and via mail upon request.
- (b) Settlement Website. Starting no later than fourteen (14) business days after Preliminary Approval, the Settlement Administrator shall establish an Internet-based website and post a detailed notice substantially similar to the Full Notice attached as Exhibit D and the Claim Form attached as Exhibit A. The Settlement Website shall be active through the Effective Date.

(c) Notice by Electronic Mail. Starting no later than forty-two (42) days after Preliminary Approval, OfficeMax will send electronic mail communications which are substantially similar to the E-mail Notice attached as Exhibit B to all of their MaxPerks members for whom it possesses a valid e-mail address and who engaged in a credit card purchase transaction in one of its California retail stores between March 1, 2010 and February 22, 2011 wherein a five digit zip code was recorded. The electronic message shall notify the recipient of this settlement and that he or she may be a Settlement Class Member who is entitled to make a claim. The electronic message shall include a link to the Claims Administrator's Settlement website, in plain text format, and will instruct the recipient to copy and paste the link into their web browser in order to view the full notice and to submit a claim.

3.3 CAFA Notice. Within ten (10) days after this Agreement is filed with the Court, OfficeMax shall serve upon relevant government officials notice of the proposed settlement in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

3.4 Claim Form. To qualify for the Claimant Benefit, Settlement Class Members must complete and timely submit a Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator within forty-five (45) days after the deadline set by the Court for OfficeMax to provide In-Store and E-mail Notice.

(a) Timeliness of a Claim Form shall be determined by the date postmarked by the postal service or other expedited delivery service, or, if submitted electronically through the Settlement Website, the date the Settlement Administrator receives the Claim Form, as evidenced by the transmission receipt.

(b) A Claim Form shall be complete if the required information is provided and it is signed (under penalty of perjury).

(c) Within five (5) business days after the deadline for submission of Claim Forms, the Settlement Administrator will review the Claim Forms and provide a summary to OfficeMax and Class Counsel indicating the total number of claims submitted.

(d) If, in the good faith exercise of its discretion, OfficeMax forms a reasonable belief that circumstances exist that indicate that a claim or claims may not have been submitted in good faith, OfficeMax may, after meeting and conferring with Class Counsel, direct the Settlement Administrator to contact the person or persons who submitted the claim(s) to require supplemental information, which may include, but will not necessarily be limited to, the amount of any transaction and/or the store receipt or credit card statement showing the transaction that formed the basis of the Claim. Any person that submits a claim that is subject to this Section will not be determined to be a Claimant until Dardarian and OfficeMax agree or the Court determines, as provided in Section 3.10, that such person is a Claimant.

3.5 Objections. Any putative Settlement Class Member who wishes to object to the settlement must file a signed, written objection with the Court and serve copies on Class Counsel and OfficeMax's Counsel, within the deadline set by the Court. Written objections must set forth the following:

(a) the case caption Nancy Dardarian v. OfficeMax North America, Inc. (Case No. 4:11-cv-00947-YGR);

(b) the full name, address, and telephone number of the person objecting;

(c) the date of any transaction(s) in which the putative Settlement Class Member used a consumer credit card to make a purchase at an OfficeMax retail store located in California between March 1, 2010 and February 22, 2011;

(d) the location of the OfficeMax store(s) in which the credit card transaction(s) described in Section 3.5(c) took place;

(e) the word “Objection” at the top of the document; and

(f) the legal and factual arguments supporting the objection.

3.6 Response to Objections. At the same time Dardarian files for Final Approval, Dardarian shall also file responses to any objections submitted by putative Settlement Class Members. Class Counsel must draft the response to the objections and give OfficeMax’s Counsel a draft of the response to review at least five (5) business days before the deadline for filing responses to the objections. OfficeMax shall be permitted, but not required, to file its own brief or statement in response to any objections.

3.7 Intention to Appear at Fairness Hearing. Any putative Settlement Class Member who wishes to be heard at the Fairness Hearing must file a signed, written Notice of Intention to Appear with the Court and serve copies on Class Counsel and OfficeMax’s Counsel, within the deadline set by the Court. The Notice of Intention to Appear must set forth the following:

The Request for Exclusion must be personally signed by the Settlement Class Member who seeks to opt out; no Settlement Class Member may opt out by having a request to opt out submitted by an actual or purported agent or attorney acting on behalf of the Settlement Class Member. No opt out request may be made on behalf of a group of Settlement Class Members.

Each Settlement Class Member who does not submit a Request for Exclusion substantially in compliance with this section within the deadline set by the Court shall be deemed to participate in the settlement and all releases provided in this Agreement. For purposes of determining timeliness, Requests for Exclusion shall be deemed to have been submitted on the date postmarked by the postal service or other expedited delivery service.

OfficeMax’s Counsel shall provide a list of all Requests for Exclusion to Class Counsel within ten (10) business days after the opt out deadline set by the Court.

3.9 Effect of Opt Outs by Settlement Class Members. If more than one thousand (1,000) prospective Settlement Class Members opt out, then OfficeMax shall have the option to rescind this Agreement, in which case all of OfficeMax’s obligations under this Agreement shall cease to be of any force and effect, and this Agreement shall be rescinded, cancelled, and annulled. If OfficeMax exercises this option, it shall provide Dardarian with written notice of its election within fifteen (15) business days of the Request for Exclusion deadline set by the Court, at which point the Parties shall return to their respective positions that existed prior to the execution of this Agreement. No term of this Agreement or any draft thereof, or the negotiation, documentation, or other part of aspect of the Parties' settlement discussions, shall have any effect or be admissible as evidence for any purpose in the Action, or in any other proceeding.

3.10 Disputed Claims. In the event of any issue over the completeness, accuracy, timeliness, or validity of any Claim Form or Request for Exclusion, Dardarian and OfficeMax shall meet and confer in good faith for the purpose of resolving the issue and, if the issue cannot be resolved, shall submit the dispute to the Court for resolution.

3.11 Proof of Notice. Before the Fairness Hearing, on or before the date set by the Court, OfficeMax shall file with the Court a declaration confirming that Notice has been provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with Section 3.2 of this Agreement.

3.13 Distribution of Claimant Benefit. Within forty-two (42) days of the Effective Date, OfficeMax, through the Settlement Administrator, shall mail the Claimant Benefit to Claimants.

SECTION 4 DISMISSAL AND RELEASES

4.1 Obtaining Approval. As soon as practicable after execution of this Agreement, Class Counsel shall take all necessary steps to secure Preliminary Approval and Final Approval of the Agreement by the Court, including, responding to any objectors, intervenors, or other persons or entities seeking to preclude approval of this Agreement.

4.2 Dismissal of the Action With Prejudice. The Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement shall include provisions for the dismissal of this Action with prejudice with each Party to bear all of its own costs and fees, except as expressly provided herein.

4.3 Plaintiffs' Release of OfficeMax. Plaintiffs, and each of Plaintiffs' successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, personal representatives, and all those who claim through them or who assert claims on their behalf, hereby release and forever discharge OfficeMax and each of OfficeMax's sister and subsidiary corporations, affiliated entities, parent companies, predecessors, successors, assigns, and any of their present and former directors, officers, employees, shareholders, agents, partners, licensors, privies, representatives, attorneys, accountants, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with them, or any of them, from any and all manner of action, causes of action, claims, demands, rights, suits, obligations, debts, contracts, agreements, promises, liabilities, damages, charges, losses, costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees, of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, in law or equity, fixed or contingent, which they have or may have arising out of or relating to any act, omission, or other conduct alleged in the Action, including but not limited to California Civil Code section 1747.08 (including all subsections) that has or could have been alleged or otherwise referred to in the Action.

4.4 The Settlement Class Release of OfficeMax. Upon the Effective Date, the Settlement Class Members who have not validly and timely requested exclusion from the Settlement Class, and each of their respective successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, personal representatives, and all those who claim through them or who assert claims on their behalf, hereby release and forever discharge OfficeMax and each of OfficeMax's sister and subsidiary corporations, affiliated entities, parent companies, predecessors, successors, assigns, and any of their present and former directors, officers, employees, shareholders, agents, partners, licensors, privies, representatives, attorneys, accountants, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with them, or any of them, from any and all manner of action, causes of action, claims, demands, rights, suits, obligations, debts, contracts, agreements, promises, liabilities, damages, charges, losses, costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees, of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, in law or equity, fixed or contingent, which they have or may have arising out of or relating to any act, omission, or other conduct alleged in the Action, including, but not limited to, California Civil Code section 1747.08 (including all subsections), that has or could have been alleged or otherwise referred to in the Action (the "Released Claims") between March 1, 2010 and the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order.

4.5 Waiver of California Civil Code Section 1542. In consideration for this Agreement and the consideration set forth herein, Plaintiffs and each member of the Settlement Class who has not validly and timely requested exclusion from the Settlement Class, acknowledge that the Released Claims herein to OfficeMax includes potential claims and costs that may not be known or suspected to exist, and that Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class hereby agree that all rights under California Civil Code section 1542, and any similar law of any state or territory of the United States, are expressly and affirmatively waived. California Civil Code section 1542 states as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

4.6 Defendant's Release of Named Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel. Upon the Final Settlement Date, Defendant will release Named Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' counsel from any claims of abuse of process, malicious prosecution, or any other claims arising out of the institution, prosecution, assertion, or resolution of this Action, including, but not limited to, claims for attorneys' fees, costs of suit, or sanctions of any kind.

SECTION 5

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

5.1 No Admission of Liability. This Agreement reflects the compromise and settlement of disputed claims between the Parties. Its provisions, and any and all drafts, communications, or discussions relating thereto, do not constitute, are not intended to constitute, and will not under any circumstances be deemed to constitute, an admission by either Party as to the merits, validity, or accuracy, or lack thereof, of any of the allegations or claims in the Action, nor the waiver of any defense.

5.2 Non-Publicity: Neither party shall issue any press release, hold any press conference, or take any other action the purpose of which is to cause the settlement or its terms to be covered or reported in any news media. If contacted by any news media, the parties shall not comment other than to state that the settlement is fair and reasonable.

5.3 Agreement Constitutes a Complete Defense. [FULL NOTICE]

LEGAL NOTICE

TO: All persons from whom OfficeMax requested and recorded a personal ZIP code in conjunction with a consumer credit card purchase transaction at a California OfficeMax retail store from March 1, 2010 through February 22, 2011. Excluded are persons from whom OfficeMax requested and recorded a ZIP code for a special purpose incidental, but related to the consumer credit card transaction, including, but not limited to, shipping, delivery, servicing, installation, special orders, customer loyalty program applications, and OfficeMax-branded credit card applications.

IF YOU ARE A MEMBER OF THIS CLASS OF PERSONS, YOU SHOULD READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY BECAUSE IT WILL AFFECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.

A settlement has been proposed in a class action lawsuit pending in United States District Court for the Northern District of California entitled Dardarian v. OfficeMax North America, Inc., Case No. 4:11-cv-00947-YGR (the “Action”). This Notice explains the nature of the lawsuit, the general terms of the proposed settlement, and your legal rights and obligations.

WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff Nancy Dardarian (“Plaintiff”) filed a class action lawsuit against OfficeMax North America, Inc. (“OfficeMax”) on behalf of herself and the Class of persons described above. The lawsuit alleges that OfficeMax violated California Civil Code section 1747.08 by requesting and recording personal identification information, including ZIP codes, of customers who purchased merchandise in a California OfficeMax store using a consumer credit card from March 1, 2010 through February 22, 2011 and seeks civil penalties and attorneys’ fees. OfficeMax denies any wrongdoing and any liability whatsoever, and no court or other entity has made any judgment or other determination of any liability against OfficeMax.

OfficeMax and Plaintiff (the “Parties”) have determined that it is in their best interests to settle the Action to avoid the expenses, inconveniences, and interferences with ongoing business operations that are associated with litigation. In addition, the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (the “Court”) has determined that the Action should proceed as a class action, for settlement purposes only, with Plaintiff Nancy Dardarian as the Class Representative, and granted preliminary approval of the settlement, subject to a final fairness hearing discussed below.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THIS CLASS ACTION?

For settlement purposes only, the Court has certified a class of persons affected by this action (“Class Members” or “the Class”) to be defined as follows:

All persons who, between March 1, 2010 and February 22, 2011, used a consumer credit card to make a purchase in an OfficeMax retail store located in California, and whose personal ZIP code was requested and recorded in conjunction with the consumer credit card transaction. Excluded are persons from whom OfficeMax requested and recorded a ZIP code for a special purpose incidental, but related to the consumer credit card transaction, including, but not limited to, shipping, delivery, servicing, installation, special orders, customer loyalty program applications, and OfficeMax-branded credit card applications.

WHAT DOES THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OFFER?

If the Court grants final approval of the settlement, OfficeMax will provide Class Members who submit a timely and valid Claim Form with a single OfficeMax Merchandise Voucher for $10.00.

The $10.00 Merchandise Voucher is transferable with a 90-day redemption period and standard terms, including (i) one Merchandise Voucher may be used per customer per transaction; (ii) the Merchandise Voucher cannot be combined with any other Merchandise Voucher, coupon, offer, discount, OfficeMax Customer Perks, and/or Retail Connect pricing; (iii) the Merchandise Voucher is valid on regular, sale, promotional and/or clearance priced items; (iv) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on purchases of gift cards, general-use prepaid cards, phone cards, Virgin Mobile devices, or U.S. postage stamps; (v) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on prior purchases or for credit card payments; (vi) the Merchandise Voucher is void if copied, sold, purchased, taxed and where prohibited; (vii) the original Merchandise Voucher must be surrendered at time of purchase; (viii) the Merchandise Voucher is not redeemable for cash and no cash or credit back; (IX) the Merchandise Voucher is only redeemable at a California OfficeMax retail location. Each Claimant is entitled to receive only one merchandise voucher regardless of the number of qualifying credit card purchases.

In addition, within five (5) days of the beginning of the OfficeMax fiscal quarter starting at least seventy-two (72) days following the final approval, OfficeMax will begin to distribute one hundred and twenty thousand (120,000) Merchandise Vouchers for $5.00 each to customers who make purchases in OfficeMax California retail stores. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the OfficeMax fiscal quarter immediately following the Effective Date begins less than 42 days following the Effective Date, OfficeMax at its sole election may begin the Merchandise Voucher distribution within five (5) days of the beginning of that OfficeMax fiscal quarter as opposed to waiting until the subsequent OfficeMax fiscal quarter. The Merchandise Vouchers will be valid beginning no later than thirty (30) days after the start of such OfficeMax fiscal quarter and continuing until the end of the OfficeMax fiscal quarter in which they are issued. The $5.00 Merchandise Voucher will be freely transferable with standard terms, including (i) one Merchandise Voucher may be used per customer per transaction; (ii) the Merchandise Voucher cannot be combined with any other Merchandise Voucher, coupon, offer, discount, OfficeMax Customer Perks, and/or Retail Connect pricing; (iii) the Merchandise Voucher is valid on regular, sale, promotional and/or clearance priced items; (iv) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on purchases of gift cards, general-use prepaid cards, phone cards, Virgin Mobile devices, or U.S. postage stamps; (v) the Merchandise Voucher is not valid on prior purchases or for credit card payments; (vi) the Merchandise Voucher is void if copied, sold, purchased, taxed and where prohibited; (vii) the original Merchandise Voucher must be surrendered at time of purchase; (viii) the Merchandise Voucher is not redeemable for cash and no cash or credit back; (IX) the Merchandise Voucher is only redeemable at a California OfficeMax retail location.

Nancy Dardarian as the Class Representative will request an incentive award of no more than $4,500.00 for her services as Class Representative and her efforts in bringing the Action. The attorneys for the Class, the law firms of Hoffman Libenson Saunders & Barba and Stonebarger Law, APC ("Class Counsel"), will be paid up to a maximum of $500,000.00 for their attorneys' fees and costs. The Court will make the final decision as to the amounts to be paid to the Class Representative and Class Counsel. These amounts will not affect the benefits provided to the Class.

HOW TO RECEIVE YOUR MERCHANDISE VOUCHER.

You must complete a Claim Form and electronically submit the Claim Form through the settlement website located at [WEBSITE] or mail it to the Settlement Administrator by no later than [DATE]. Claim Forms can be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at:

Dardarian, et al. v. OfficeMax North America, Inc. Settlement Administrator
[MAILING ADDRESS]
[CITY], [STATE] [ZIP CODE]

If you do not submit a valid and timely Claim Form, you will not receive benefits under the settlement, but you will still be bound by the settlement unless you exclude yourself.

The information provided in your Claim Form and your membership in the Class will be subject to verification by the Settlement Administrator. If the Settlement Administrator determines that you are not a member of the Class, you may not receive a Merchandise Voucher.

The delivery date for your Claim Form will be deemed to be the date (a) the Claim Form is deposited in the postal service or other expedited delivery service as evidenced by the postmark, in the case of submission by mail, or (b) in the case of submission electronically through the settlement website, the date the Settlement Administrator receives the Claim Form, as evidenced by the transmission receipt.

If you need a Claim Form, you may obtain one by: (1) downloading one at [WEBSITE], or (2) by writing the Settlement Administrator at the address above. You may also call the Settlement Administrator toll free at [PHONE NUMBER].

IF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS APPROVED, YOU WILL LOSE THE RIGHT TO BRING A CLAIM ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE CONDUCT ALLEGED IN THIS ACTION.

If the Court approves the proposed settlement, it will enter a judgment in the Action with prejudice as to all Class Members. Dardarian and all Class Members who do not validly and timely request to be excluded from the proposed settlement, and each of their respective successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, personal representatives, and all those who claim through them or who assert claims on their behalf, will be deemed to have released and forever discharged OfficeMax, and each of its sister and subsidiary corporations, parent companies, affiliated entities, predecessors, successors, assigns, and any of their present and former directors, officers, employees, shareholders, agents, partners, licensors, privies, representatives, attorneys, accountants, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with them, or any of them, from any and all manner of action, causes of action, claims, demands, rights, suits, obligations, debts, contracts, agreements, promises, liabilities, damages, charges, losses, costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees, of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, in law or equity, fixed or contingent, which they have or may have arising out of or relating to any act, omission, or other conduct alleged in the Action, including, but not limited, to California Civil Code section 1747.08 (including all subsections), that has or could have been alleged or otherwise referred to in the Action ("Released Claims").

In addition, with regard to the Released Claims, Dardarian and all Class Members who do not validly and timely request to be excluded from the proposed settlement, and each of their respective successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, personal representatives, and all those who claim through them or who assert claims on their behalf, will be deemed to have expressly waived and relinquished, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the provisions, rights and benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, or any other similar provision under federal or state law, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

If you want to maintain the right to sue or continue to sue OfficeMax based on claims you may have arising from OfficeMax requesting and recording your personal identification information, you must exclude yourself from the Class, or "opt out," as described below. If you opt out, you will not receive any class benefit.

HOW TO EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT.

You may exclude yourself from the Class and the settlement. If you want to be excluded, you must send a written letter by mail to the Settlement Administrator stating:

Case No. 4:11-cv-002233 YGR

1 Plaintiff Nancy Dardarian in the above-captioned action has submitted an unopposed
 2 Motion for entry of an Order Granting Preliminary Approval to Class Action Settlement,
 3 determining certain matters in connection with the proposed Settlement of this class action,
 4 pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement reached by the parties and presented to the
 5 Court for approval. After consideration of the Settlement Agreement and the exhibits attached
 6 thereto, and after due deliberation and consideration of the totality of the circumstances and the
 7 record, and for good cause shown, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED as
 8 follows:

9 1. Defined Terms. The Court adopts the defined terms set forth in the Settlement
 10 Agreement for purposes of this Order, unless otherwise specified.

11 2. Preliminary Approval of Settlement. The Settlement Agreement, including the

 21 located in California, and whose personal ZIP code was requested and recorded in conjunction 22 with the consumer credit card transaction. Excluded are persons from whom OfficeMax requested
 23 and recorded a ZIP code for a special purpose incidental, but related to the consumer credit card
 24 transaction, including, but not limited to, shipping, delivery, servicing, installation, special orders,
